I know, that you're there
And I care about you
But I fell a victim to stare
And leave you feelin' alone
But I know what is right
I could not stop myself
There's only one reason for this
And it leaves me wondering why
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
She took all my words to say
Then I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
Why she makes me feel this way
Feeling guilty I kissed her lips
I couldn't hold it for long
Those eyes so bright just like an eclipse
Where should I go on
And it left me feelin' strange
Where should I go on
I feel a burden in my heart
No wonder I wasn't strong
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
She took all my words to say
Then I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
Why she makes me feel this way
So I'll take what I've done tonight
And I'll bury it for good
Cause it's long gone, and out of sight
So stop wondering if I should.
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
She took all my words to say
Then I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
Why she makes me feel this way
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering
Then I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
And I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
She took all my words to say
Then I'm wondering, I'm wondering, I'm wondering why
Why she makes me feel this way
