There's pain within,
I can't define
Inside, within, inside,
Illhealthy I feel
[chorus]
When your inmost yields
And you fall
Deeper and deeper into grief
For each breath you take
[chorus]
Dark dresses my pale skin
Cold shivers down my spine
I have lost hope
Of loving a day of life
Faith
Has fallen from me
I'm rotting inside
Fear
Sickening conditions
Frightening reflections
...feeling divine!!!
...so dim the light in me...
...no nothing...
...all ending...
