Music: P.Lindroos & Roni Korpas

Lyrics: K.Ranta

With my heart black as the night
I feel no pain while I kill Blood runs warm as I fight against you
In my dreams I have seen the light but it is fading away...

The souls I curse haunt me forever
'cause there's no light I hate myself now in the dark
When the sky turns black and there is no light in sight
I come from the dark to tear your heart apart

chorus:
I am a fucking nightmare
I am the shadow
There is no turning back when you have seen my eyes I have tried to stop but it's too late now Everywhere it is just endless war

With my heart black as the night
I feel no pain when I die

Blood runs warm as I fight against you
In my dreams I have seen the light

My mind is filled with endless sorrow
The light that used to shine so bright is no more alive
When I walk through this dream
I see the light

No way to escape this fucking reality of mine

With my eyes black as my blood
I see the approaching death
The souls I curse haunt me forever
and there is no light in sight

solo: P.Lindroos

I won again
but is this the way Now I am leaving leaving for good
To rest in eternal peace
