Woah,
Woah, oh,
Oh,

I know a guy, who lives on the streets,
Sometimes I get him something to eat,
And he doesn't take drugs, and he don't drink,
Oh, and it makes me think,

I know a girl who stands on my block,
Day and night, watch them cars they stop,
And she doesn't understand, and she don't see,
Oh, and it makes me think,

Everybody looking, but they ain't feeling, no,
Everybody talking, but they ain't saying much,
Ain't nobody willing to try,
Seems like everybody's closing their eyes,
But I can't close mine,

Woah, ooh,
Woah, oh,
Oh,

I know a kid with a bad disease,
Struggles with pain like you would not believe,
And he needs an operation, but it ain't free,
Oh, and it makes me think,

Everybody looking, but they ain't feeling, no,
Everybody talking, but they ain't saying much,
Ain't nobody willing to try,
Seems like everybody's closing their eyes,
But I can't close mine,

Woah, oh,
Woah, oh,
Oh.
