Fire! Burn the city-Take what you find!
Ire! In the hearts of our mankind
No grieving disposition
Immune to all that's kind
Liar! The heart screams to the mind

Innocence forgotten, No salvation in the end
(Worst nightmares come true)
Blinded by our ways and chains that you can't understand
(This life we sail through)
You best start believin'... We tell no tales!

Sire! We've lost them once again
Liar! Find them or this is your end
You'll find them! We'll take them!
To the depths, my friend!
Conspire! Tonight we defend!

Innocence forgotten, No salvation in the end
(Worst nightmares come true)
Blinded by our ways and chains that you can't
understand
(This life we sail through)
You best start believin'... We tell no tales!
