I'm gonna make him mine
All mine

All of my life I've dreamed of a guy
And now that he's here, I'm feeling so shy
But I'll be changing my tune by the light of the moon

I'm gonna make him mine
Make him mine
All mine
My heart can't deny love at first sight
That's why
I'm gonna make him mine

I'll make him see how happy we'll be
My heart just for him and his heart for me
When he's holding my hand, I'll know he's my man

I'm gonna make him mine
Make him mine
All mine
My heart can't deny love at first sight
That's why
I'm gonna make him mine

And when he's holding my hand, I'll know he's my man
I'm gonna make him mine
Make him mine
All mine
My heart can't deny love at first sight
That's why
I'm gonna make him mine
Make him mine
All mine

I'm gonna make him mine
Make him mine
All mine
