My friends keep telling me I write too many sad songs But they don't understand the sorrow that I've been going through I suppose I can't defend these accusations against me
'cause all the songs they've heard were written long ago!

Before you
When I was alone and my life was falling apart
Before you
When I had no one walking around with a broken heart
Before you
Hopeless romantic
Before you

So now my friends instead of being all supportive They try to tell me that I've changed and that I need to think this through 'cause baby girl you've got me whipped in all directions
What they don't realize is the real pain came long ago!

When I was alone and my life was falling apart
Before you
When I had no one walking around with a broken heart
Before you
I was so desperate, doomed from the very start
Before you
Hopeless romantic

Now I'm the one that's smiling as you walk by my room and I'm tongue tied Yeah I'm the one that's smiling 'cause I got you by my side for the rest of my life My friends may think I'm crazy but they don't have a clue
That this hopeless romantic has got his mind set on you

(Hopeless romantic)
I could buy her flowers and take her on a date
We could have a good time and things are going great (Hopeless romantic)
But as soon as things got serious our relationship would die
â€˜cause I was a hopeless romantic until the day you entered my life
(Hopeless romantic)
I could buy her flowers and take her on a date
We could have a good time and things are going great
(Hopeless romantic)
But as soon as things got serious our relationship
would die
â€˜cause I was a hopeless romantic until the day you
entered my life
(Hopeless romantic)
I could buy her flowers and take her on a date
We could have a good time and things are going greatâ€¦..
