I'm making my phone call but nobody's on the other side
I'm stuck in this jail cell tonight
Can't remember exactly what I did to get me locked away
But I'm sure if I had the chance I'd do it again

I swear this can't be happening to me
I must be losing my mind

I remember the day and the hour
Her soul shaking power
The look in her eyes that night
She was my prized possession with sexual tension
Don't know if it's wrong or if it's right
She was the life of the party
You know that she's gotta be
Love at first sight
Love at first sight

Memory starts returning but some of the events still unclear
Got a headache that's pounding and ringing bells in my ear
I see a picture of some girl and my thoughts all seem to snap in place
What a night I must have had, I can't believe I even forgot her face

I swear this can't be happening to me
I must be losing my mind

I remember the day and the hour
Her soul shaking power
The look in her eyes that night
She was my prized possession with sexual tension
Don't know if it's wrong or if it's right
She was the life of the party
You know that she's gotta be
Love at first sight
Love at first sight

I remember the day and the hour
Her soul shaking power
The look in her eyes that night
She was my prized possession with sexual tension
Don't know if it's wrong or if it's right
She was the life of the party
You know that she's gotta be
Love at first sight
She was the life of the party
You know that she's gotta be
Love at first sight
She was the life of the party
You know that she's gotta be
Love at first sight
Love at first sight
