When I took the plane to get to know myself
I found out that there's no place to hide away from this Cause I cannot resist
I fall down on my bed at night to disappear

Help me understand what I'm going through
Cause I'm falling apart
I'm broken but I love you (2x)

Then I open up my eyes just to see the light
In all these mysteries paste all over me
I feel like a homeless in his wheel
I can't slow down cause I might gain a pound or two

Help me understand what I'm going through
Cause I'm falling apart
I'm broken but I love you (2x)
