Oh my God I'm losing it,
Tell me why you forgot to mention it's
All inside my head.
I've got no continuity,
Tell me now, what do you want from me.
Round and round we go.
I hope you wish me well,
So I can fix myself.
No one to hold me down,
As I'm letting go.
I count the ways I'm a little bit different.
A castaway, a little bit distant.
You can go and say what you want to say.
I'm over it, I'm over you.
I've had enough.
I can never remember to fall in love,
Cause I'm doing whatever.
Go ahead and say what you want to say,
Cause I can say I'll be ok.
Oh my God what's happening.
Don't ever think I'll take what you're offering,
Throw it all away.
Don't help me,
Cause I got this all figured out and I don't need to prove it.
Round and round again.
I hope you wish me well,
So I can fix myself.
No one to hold me down,
As I'm letting go.
I count the ways I'm a little bit different.
A castaway, a little bit distant.
You can go and say what you want to say.
I'm over it, I'm over you.
I've had enough.
I can never remember to fall in love,
Cause I'm doing whatever.
Go ahead and say what you want to say,
Cause I can say I'll be ok.
Now that it's make or break,
You give and take.

I know I'm still breathing.
The world don't know me,
And you don't know me.
Out of my hands to understand,
I won't listen to what you're saying.
So you can go and say what you want to say,
Cause you don't know me at all.
I count the ways I'm a little bit different.
A castaway, a little bit distant.
You can go and say what you want to say.
I'm over it, I'm over you.
I've had enough.
I can never remember to fall in love,
Cause I'm doing whatever.
Go ahead and say what you want to say,
Cause I can say I'll be ok.
I count the ways I'm a little bit different.
A castaway, a little bit distant.
You can go and say what you want to say.
I'm over it, I'm over you.
I've had enough.
I can never remember to fall in love,
Cause I'm doing whatever.
Go ahead and say what you want to say,
Cause I can say I'll be ok.
I'll be ok.
I'll be ok.
