Cause I'm running in circles.
And I'm finding it harder now.
Yeah
Slowly waking up, and my life is all the same here.
This is not enough, and I lay here staring, staring.
Everyday I'm getting older as these walls kill all my
time, and the rest is fixed routine as it goes by.
Cause I'm running in circles and I'm finding it
harder now, to give it up get a life that's mine,
cause a chase is what I need.
Getaway, make a break this time and escape this part
of me.
Am I the only one that hates security?
Working for a life that eats the best of me.
Everyday I'm getting older as these walls kill all my
time, and the rest is fixed routine as it goes by.
Cause I'm running in circles and I'm finding it
harder now, to give it up get a life that's mine,
cause a chase is what I need.
Getaway, make a break this time and escape this part
of me.
Hey now, another day letdown.
Oh and somehow, I'll move on from this breakdown.
Run & I'll take this all the way, never looking back
on those same old days.
Cause I'm running in circles and I'm finding it
harder now, to give it up get a life that's mine.
Cause I'm running in circles and I'm finding it
harder now, to give it up get a life that's mine,
cause a chase is what I need.
Getaway, make a break this time and escape this part
of me.
