I'll be the chorus, you'll be the verse.
We'll live in a forrest of beautiful words.
I'll be the strings, you'll be the keys.
Together we'll find all the harmonies.

All we're got is all we have to give away,
so what I have not I fill in with what you got.
And we'll be okay.
Take yours and mine, we'll combine and we'll have everything.
Take yours and mine, we'll combine and we'll have everything.

I'll be the soil, you be the seed.
Together we'll plant whatever we need.
Turn on the sun, fill the watering can.
Watch love bloom, while I hold your hand.

All we've got is all we have to give away,
so what I have not I fill in with what you got.
And we'll be okay.
Take yours and mine, we'll combine and we'll have
everything.
Take yours and mine, we'll combine and we'll have everything.

Yours and Mine.
Yours and Mine.
Yours and Mine.
Yours and Mine.

Take yours and mine, we'll combine and we'll have
everything.
Yours and mine.
