Memories of the real world where I live my fantasy of love nothing more
in my dreams you will be like a stranger to my life

There's a girl
doesn't know what to do to believe that in my heart she's always here with me

Chorus:

I'll be there
always in your life
wasting all my time
hoping you'll be mine

and now everyday
even everynight
in this world of love
I'll be alive

People all around me
I can see they're feeling alone In this strange little world where it seems that we are living in a box without doors without places where to go say a pray of salvation to live a real love
