I can't stand another day without her talking me
So I grab my coat and walk down the block wondering
As I look up at your window, I feel the rain coming down
And my heart just keeps on calling out
Now I'm staying at your windows
I'm trying to find the words to get you back
And I don't know if you'll answer back Baby tell me what I did
Tell me what I gotta do to fix it
And I will go out my way, just to hear you say
If you say that you'll stay, I promise things will change,
Your love won't be in vain
If you say that you'll stay, I'm giving you my all
Give me one more chance to love
Give me one more chance to love
Give me one more chance to love

Just the other day you were fine, laughing with me
You're so beautiful, I love your smile
Was there something said cause you've changed much
Things ain't the same
Hold up wait, wait a minute, let's press rewind
Cause if the girl on my arm when we got the bar
She was just a fan she mean no harm
You gotta know you're my only one
And I gotta hear you say
If you say that you'll stay, I promise things will change
Your love won't be in vain
If you say that you'll stay, I'm giving you my all
Give me one more chance to love
Give me one more chance to love
Give me one more chance to love

I really want you back, how you gonna leave I thought we was better than that, than that
Just give me more, just give one more second
I really want you back, how you gonna leave I thought
we was better than that, than that
Just give me more, just give one more second

Baby if you say that you'll stay, I promise thing will change

Your love won't be in vain
If you say that you'll stay, I'm giving you my all
Give me one more change to love
What you want from me?
