I can carve our names into a stone
Etch out a little heart in a tree trunk
I can pull up the brightest daisies on the way to your house
But I cannot pretend that I'm not fallin' for you

I can walk to your front steps, knock upon your door
I can think of something smooth to say that you've never heard before
I can pull you close and keep you calm
But I cannot pretend that I'm not fallin' for you
No I cannot pretend that I'm not fallin' for you

You could say I'm going crazy for you
Head over heels
But there's no time for white lies or playing hard to get

I can kiss you while the sun sets slow
I can walk beside you and grab your hand to hold
I can get used to the way your smile puts me into shock
But I cannot pretend that I'm not fallin' for you
No I cannot pretend that I'm not fallin' for you

Falling, falling, falling for you
Falling, falling, falling for you
