Alright I'm gonna show ya how different I am Everyone talkin' about all the shit they got, all that crap man
We've been thru that routine
How many motha fuckah's do it like this though, huh?
The whole game's gonna change
I'm doin' it my way and my way only Ya see you've gotta be versatile to in order to make it
And that's in life
so uh
let's do this

0:30

(rapping)

time passes, every second a new dawn..
the sooner you rise, the sooner you'll fall..
stuck in your ways, unable to see the light..
i tried to innovate, you thought i tried to fight..
accepting the easy way, and popular stance.. turning your back on me, cause i'm different.. it's a new day though, and the stock is higher than ever..
no longer the fool, i'm slick and oh so clever..

(singing)

so you wanna look me in my eyes....
and tell me that you realized... everything that went down...
every move you made was wrong..
and now that i'm back up on my feet..
my good side you try to keep..
but i'm smarter than you think...
so just let me give your ass a hint...

i'm gonna keep, keepin' on..
i'm gonna remember how i get there...
i'm gonna defy your laws...
i'm in on this for the long haul..

yesterday's not today, or is it tomorrow...
the results may not be there now, but they'll follow..
can't predict where i'll end up in this game....

but one things for certain...things will change

only makin enough loot to support myself... still gotta sceem to endulge my self..
hate beinâ€™ the criminal, but i gotta progress,
do this or that, keep my address..
every step back is 2 steps forward, i only hang with those that i know are gonna be loyal..
gotta plan to rule the world someday...
but while that unfolds, i gotta go to work today..

doing everything i can to survive...
takinâ€™ the pain, makinâ€™ the sacrafice...
sometimes i pray and ask if i can..
iâ€™m told to stand up and be a man..
Every war i wage, is for my benefit embrace everyone, i just try to fit.. kill the time as i reach towards the flame..
and when i get it..things are gonna change...

iâ€™m gonna keep, keepinâ€™ on..
iâ€™m gonna remember how i get there...
iâ€™m gonna defy your laws...
iâ€™m in on this for the long haul..

yesterdayâ€™s not today, or is it tommorrow...
the results may not be there now, but theyâ€™ll follow..
canâ€™t predict where iâ€™ll end up in this game....
but one things for certain...things will change

i heard the rumors that i was dead..
in jail, gettinâ€™ poked in the ass.. thatâ€™s where everyone thinks iâ€™ll be but none of you fools know the reality..
iâ€™m takinâ€™ this shit to a whole new level..
Moâ€™ golden than a god-damn medal..
so when i get my break iâ€™ll call and say hello..
and watch t.v. tonight, iâ€™ll be on leno...(ha-ha)

pay the price at a premium cost, but the experience helps me not get lost..
stayinâ€™ focused on my shit...
if you donâ€™t do the same then youâ€™ll quit..
i can see it in your face that youâ€™re weak..
hear it in your tone that youâ€™re scared..
but you wonâ€™t see that with me,
When iâ€™m walkinâ€™ downtown with a lady..

yesterdayâ€™s not today, or is it tomorrow...
the results may not be there now, but theyâ€™ll follow..
canâ€™t predict where iâ€™ll end up in this game....
but one thing for certain...things will change

iâ€™m the bad guy, outspoken all night..
the bad influence, mr. brendan smith..
and i can assure you, thatâ€™s one thing that wonâ€™t change
dead or alive, streets or caged..
when i reach the top, like i know i will..
everything will change, some bad, some good..
and you wanna know the real dirt?
itâ€™s this simple: i ainâ€™t like anyone else on earthâ€¦

some struggle to find what they want... but iâ€™ve known since i was young.. so hate on my life, and my plans..
but i know iâ€™ll taste success..
and as you fall in your coma known as life..
and wish you were as dedicated as i... remember itâ€™s possible to turn the page..
oh, yeah son... things do change...

the results may not be there now, but theyâ€™ll follow..
canâ€™t predict where iâ€™ll end up in this game....
but one thing for certain...things will change

Things change
Things change
Things change
Things change

what? you thought all this shit was for nuthinâ€™..
no. btown. bs
Only motha fucker doinâ€™ thisâ€¦!
you do what i do.. Oops! you canâ€™t.. thatâ€™s why itâ€™s all gonna happen for me though...
youâ€™ll see.. youâ€™ll see..
