So you're flat broke the worse is yet to come
Whoever said that life was fair?
You sit on your ass and hope for the best
Don't you see that no one cares?

Stand on your feet don't cry for help
'Cause no one's gonna help but yourself
Yourself, yourself, yourself, yourself

Life's done wrong it's always the same
You're the only one to blame
Down on your luck begging for change
If I was you I'd be ashamed

Go get a job, you have your health
Because no one's gonna help you but yourself
Yourself, yourself, yourself, yourself

Let's go

This is what you call a life
Eating crumbs to stay alive
Diggin' through somebody's trash
Mooching off the working class

It's your choice to be a slob
And never go to get a job
Don't look to me for sympathy
'Cause I know nothing comes for free

Not an ounce of self respect
Be a man and pay your rent
Welfare lifts a lot of stress
I'm paying for your laziness
