Hailstones and lead
Is what my voodoo doll embeds
But I got this toy so much bigger than this,
And when you wish on it you
Get your three clicks..
Hey pretty air
Take me somewhere

Someone just paint it red
My blinking neon chest..
Catch a curse of two so I can Hear a whisper in my bed..

Dont you like the peace?
That fights you when you're on your knees
I'm just an island that floats around on stares
A digital widow
A abandoned fare
In my feet where
They become a pair..
Someone just paint it red
My blinking neon chest
Catch a curse or two so I can hear a whisper in my bed
Let down your hair and Swing with me instead..
Up the stairs to the party of the dead

We'll party like we're dead...
We can watch them dance on my hands

Someone just drink with me instead.....
