Just the sound of whatâ€™s become
Of the man whoâ€™s on the run
Whereâ€™s the time, whatâ€™s the rush
Keep yourself, save your breath
Shut your mouth or just play dead
This pride is yours and yours alone
Youâ€™re way too late for my devastation
Youâ€™re all to blame for my desperation
Curse the one who loves himself
The only one who ever cared
We demonize the real unknown
Ask myself should I believe
Or stay caught up in your deceit
The choice to make is ours no more
No more no more no more no more
Youâ€™re way too late for my devastation
Youâ€™re all to blame for my desperation
The sick, the coarse, the frail, the weak
The ones who kill you while you sleep
Stricken down, the ones you found
The hand that lifts you straight for men
(Theyâ€™re all the same to me)
(Theyâ€™re all the same to me)
Theyâ€™re all the same
Weâ€™re all the same
Weâ€™re all the same
Youâ€™re way too late for my devastation
Youâ€™re all to blame for my desperation
Youâ€™re way too late for my devastation
Youâ€™re all right here for my last parade
