Right now
I can feel it
Don't wanna run away
Could never push it away
I've been hiding inside myself
But now it seems the time has come
To come out and play
Got my hands on the steering wheel
But even so the flow dictates
Where I go
What I think
What I feel
Just sit back and enjoy this ride
Before the curtain close
And it's time to say goodnight.

This very moment is a gift
It's a wide open door
It brings it's fullness of potential
Leaves me gasping for more
Whenever I break through
Into awareness of this fact
See the years turn to seconds
See the mountains trampled flat
But if I worship lotus petals
If I Ohm the world away
If I eat an apple daily
To keep Doctor man at bay
Could I truly say
That I had followed this flow?
Well my friend, sad to say that
This brain says "No"

Something's Up
I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here! (Something's up!)

I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here!

And so the word is out, it is born
It raises its head
Looks around
Changes form
Determines our minds over time
Sets the course of our lives
Makes a normative command of the storm
And as we sail this vessel
Through time and through space
We set a quickening pace
After all, this is a rat race
And stragglers are bound to succumb
They fall on their face into disgrace
While we're aiming at first place!

Something's Up
I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here! (Something's up!)

I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here!

There's a roving eye,
An itchy trigger finger.

We've gotta move right now
We've got to move it!
We're feeling an urgent need to push the limit
We're building a bridge up and then we're tearing it down
We smack the shit out of that frown...

Something's Up
I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here! (Something's up!)
I can feel it
Something is be-Fuck
Something's ready to blow!
This way up, best believe it
Some things up
Some things down
Some things breaking new ground
Something Here!

Can you feel it? Something's Up.
I can feel it Something's Up!
