In my heart
In my head
In my soul it just makes me feel better to know
That you're there
That you care
And in my heart it just makes me feel better

You're so laid back
And you should know that you make me laugh
With every joke you make
And its like I am never sad

When I'm with you the whole world goes by
As we're lost in each other's gaze
And I just can't lie everything feels so right with you

In my heart
In my head
In my soul it just makes me feel better to know
That you're there
That you care
It just makes me feel better

You took me by surprise
When I first saw you smile at me
And how I knew this would be Something more

You took the past away from me
Like it never had mattered at all
And now you're all I can think about

In my heart
In my head
In my soul
And it makes me feel better to know
that you're there
That you care
In my heart it just makes me feel better

I feel you with my all the time
Stay with me for a little while cause don't you know that you're Everything to me

Don't you know it just makes me feel better

That you're there
That you care
And in my heart it just makes me feel better to know
