Raging war cries out in war
Caused by rage of war god Mars His warlike spirit will live on and on

Ola ancestors will come forth
From the deepest depths of hell To where the seven kings of king is held forevermore

Seventy times the blood is spilled in battle Who once created were by the force of darkness

Deep in my log I write these words for the world to read

Who will believe a seers mind as I'm passed away in peace
Deep in my log I write these words
for the world to read
Book of visions will not fail
And now I'll rest in peace

Thousand ships will sail the seas Biggest fleet in history
When the candle's out will be the time when all occurs

Seventy times...

Deep in my log...
