I don't write songs about you
But if I did
They'd be so real

There's something we know
There's something left unsaid
Where we are is where we'll be
Never thought we'd feel this way

I just want to say to you
Because I know it's true
If you only knew how much
I think about you
Think about you

I can never sleep
Cause when i'm awake
Your pictures by my side
You seem so real

I need you
I want you
I don't know if I could live without you
Where we are is where we'll be
Never thought we'd feel this way

I just want to say to you
Because I know it's true
If you only knew how much
I think about you
Think about you

You

We are you are we will
We are you are we will

I just want to say to you
Because I know it's true
If you only knew how much
I think about you
I think about you

I just want to say to you
Because I know it's true
If you only knew how much
I think about you
Think about you

Oh I think about you
Only you
Oh I think about you
Only you
