"Half Ghost"

you can stand at a show all night somewhere in the back just watching the bands you can try to pretend nothing's wrong & clap for the songs or drive all night for no reason just drive til the tape's done & leave everything to the long long road to take you home or talk on the phone all night & tell the whole story to an answering machine or put everything on a song just put everything on some song on the radio at least a song won't cheat at least a song won't leave
