carol come outside wanna gonna go for a ride we got an ice cream truck and fireworks to light

with the music up loud as we can stand it roman candles in a vacant lot we'll feel like bandits in a stolen ice cream truck on the wrong side of town sparklers out all the windows under shrill familiar sounds hazel stole some beer you work the breaks i'll steer over fences and lawns we'll drive around til the gas runs out on look out for the cops binoculars made out of push up pops all the missiles are melting we'll give them away

anna stole an ice cream truck
high on stolen pills from her sister's treatment i think it's gonna be pretty bad when we come down
