

Casiotone for the Painfully Alone

"Nashville Parthenon"

Visit "Nashville Parthenon" on MotoLyrics.com if you ever make it back to Nashville remember you have still got a friend I'll meet you at the Parthenon that's the place we always went it's been so dull since you left Nashville I've read the same books again and again it makes me wish I wasn't bashful when it comes to other men but if I could have my way Darling you'd come home remember when you moved to Nashville and the first time that we kissed remember when your mother found us remember that you're sorely missed and when you make it back to Nashville we'll forget all of your sins and I still buy two pairs of everything so when you come home you and I'll be twins because if I could have my way I wouldn't be alone

Visit Casiotone for the Painfully Alone page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.