"Rice Dream Girl"

i was in the safeway store when i saw you in aisle four i swear you looked so nice you were buying milk that was made out of rice i tried to think of something clever to say but you were already walking away in an attempt to get my groove on i offered you my white castle coupon the radio was playing seal i tried to tell you how i feel but then our shopping carts locked wheels & the moment just seemed wrong oh won't you do what's right put your groceries in my car tonight i want to take you home oh w/ your eyes of blue i want to drink rice milk w/ you i'll be your one and only so we won't be so lonely
