"Toby Take A Bow"

i've never seen you so awful i found you at the bottom of a russian novel gold medal & a crown a cardigan & a frown so maladjusted & clever the greatest smith's fan ever your picture's in the paper & the caption shouts there is a boy that never goes out that same song on repeat you haven't left the house in weeks you won't even come out for dinner toby grace world record winner i guess you thought it would make you feel better somehow but heaven knows you're miserable now heaven knows you're miserable now
heaven knows you're miserable now so toby take a bow
