Your voice is like a ghost inside my head
You whisper lies to try and hurt me again
All the times you doubted me, you'll see
I was always better than you made me out to be

Not gonna let you down, let you down easy
You're gonna feel it inside, it's gonna eat you alive
When I walk away, walk away believe me
The pain will say I told you so, oh-oh-oh...

Tearing off the grip you've had on me
Time has told me you will never be what I need
The ashes from the hell you put me through
They will be the memories what's left of me and you

Oh, not gonna let you down, let you down easy
You're gonna feel it inside, it's gonna eat you alive
When I walk away, walk away believe me
The pain will say I told you so...

All your promises to all my dreams
Were never meant to be
You never believed in me
Hiding your regrets, you'll come back
Wanting me to fall in your arms
Who do you think you are?

Not gonna let you down, let you down easy, no
When I walk away, walk away believe me
The pain will say I told you...
I told you so...
Yea-yeah, yea-yeah

Not gonna let you down, let you down easy
You're gonna feel it inside, it's gonna eat you alive
When I walk away, walk away believe me
The pain will say I told you so...
I told you so...
