Funny how things have a way of working themselves out

You ask what I'm talkin about

Baby come on

I'm not a sell-out

But I'm filled with self-doubt

The last thing I need is someone telling me all 'bout

Love

And all the things that come with it

You suck it so I lick it

Punch your ticket

Cuz ya leavin first thing in the morning

I hope you didn't have a lot to do

Cuz by the time this night is through

I'd have done everything I want to do to you

I know what you been doin

I know who you been screwin

We must admit the last fuck is the best of all

I beat it up so rough that you got to crawl

We must admit the last fuck is the best of all

It's a strange little world that we're livin' in

A strange world in which sex rules everything

Around me and all those around you too

Take a look around this room and what you'll find is me and you

All us dirty humans addicted to somethin' be it fucking, abusin substances, and excessive finances

I've learned a bit

I should tone it down a bit

I'm slowly getting over it

I no longer care who you're with or who I'm with

I'm over it

I know who you been doin

Whose dick you busy chewin

We must admit the last fuck is the best of all

We getting down like a fucking freak festival

We must admit the last fuck is the best of all

And for that matter
All up in my pink matter
Hey batter, batter
Tradin' dirty chit chatter
Whats the matter whicha?
I'd like to think that I'm a little more sophisticated
But when I'm propositioned I feel like I'm obligated Funny
We're all addicted to love, drugs, and money
In the land of greener grass, where I'm told it's always sunny
And I'm sick of it
There's no getting used to it
Inappropriate
I'll let you hit if I can just get another hit

I know what you've been doin and I hope that it was worth it
You left your cell phone out I wish I could go back, avoid it
What's done is done, but it's the least I can do cuz in the end theres no other girl I'd have over you

I know where you been sleepin'
I know that you been creepin'
We must admit the last fuck is the best of all
We getting down in a suite at the Beau Rivage
We must admit the last fuck is the best of all

I know what you been doin
I know who you been screwin
We must admit the last fuck is the best of all
I beat it up so rough that you got to crawl
We must admit the last fuck is the best of-
