I hold the chains on life, you'll never leave
Concoction, under lock and key, no need
I trust in lust to keep you stranded by my side
And when you're gone, I'm only left with lies

Run tonight, burn the candle, fantasize
Look inside
Queen of fire in your eyes

The midnight chime presents a force unknown
A will to be so still it's quite alone
Let out, but not cast out
It's everywhere inside
And left alone it grows to strain your mind

Run tonight, burn the candle, fantasize
Look inside
Queen of fire in your eyes

Oh no, don't go, I want you back again
Watch out, locked out
You're straying from the end
It's time to cry, you're going to die
Run tonight, burn the candle, fantasize
Look inside
Queen of fire in your eyes
