Would you wait for me today,
if tomorrow I was gone?
I try to say goodbye,
but your heart won't let me go.
If you took it all away,
I doubt that I would be OK,
I'm tired of wasting all this time on things I know that won't be mine

Days go by and I can't let you go,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't let you go,
Every time I think I'm getting close,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't let you go

Would you tell me how you feel,
if all the love had disappeared,
and you have given up,
but your heart won't let you go.
I remember the days,
when you would smile and softly say,
I'm tired of wasting all this time on things I know that I have left behind

Days go by and I can't let you go,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't let you go,
Everytime I think I'm getting close,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't let you go

And I know, only time can heal this broken heart again

Days go by and I can't let you go,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't let you go,
Everytime I think I'm getting close,
I know that I will never know,
All I know is I can't...

Days go by and I can't let you go,

(I can never let you go, I can never let you go, I can never let you go away from me)
Days Go by and I can't let you go,
(From me, I can never let you go away from me)
