You said that you wanted everything they took away,
Everytime you try to move ahead it slips away, away,
All the good things that make you believe a better day,
Wash down the drain on a rainy day, they will never stay no they won't stay
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me tonight
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me
All the good things that make you believe a better day,
Wash down the drain on a rainy day, they will never
stay no they won't stay
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me tonight
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me tonight
So close yet so far away,
From things that make you real inside,
Next to you could only save me
