I can't tolerate you and your stupid love games make me wanna go insane but I can't help myself I don't wanna know what else baby sing my name baby play stupid love games but I just can't say goodbye oh it's an off a shame how you want to say my name listen you is all a game

Ref:

I can't tolerate you and your stupid love love games everytime you cought I feel like I'm insane I just can't quit with you leave my life alone I just tolerate tolerate tolerate hey, so confusing babe I can't keep my head from turning round & round you always forget my birthday I can't believe to keep sinking down, down, down but I just can't say goodbye oh, I can't tolerate you and your stupid love games
make me wanna go insane

Ref:

I can't believe that I took so long to see who you wanna be It's hard not to let it go but I know it's only matter of time to go out, out of my life
