Visit "Above Them All" on MotoLyrics.com

I have got secrets, but no one to share them with They might go away if you don't let me in Sober and speechless, alone on the floor again
It's been so long, where to begin

Head down, rise up, breathe in, let go and smile

Don't let it tear you up inside
We're bound to fall
Keep climbing and find a place to dive
Above them all

Scheme on you schemers, dream on like the dreamers of old
We're not getting lost in what could've been

Head down, rise up, breathe in, let go and smile

Don't let it tear you up inside
We're bound to fall
Keep climbing and find a place to dive
Above them all
