Now that I'm not alone
And I'm beyond your control
I hope you found what you wanted,
You won't get it from me

Like your soul, you've lost your mind
Cross your fingers, hold your breath
I'm sure you'll find them in Time

I've carried on, carried on without you
A part of me hopes that you're watching and waiting,
Waiting to remember me

It's been so long since I died
Inside/I don't think I've tried To resurrect the thing that makes me feel completely alive
What I bleed, why I breath

I've carried on, carried on without you
A part of me hopes that you're watching and waiting,
Waiting to remember me

I hope that you're watching and waiting to see what I have done this time
I never let you down, I know you've had your doubts and I let them become mine
No more bending and breaking, no demons awakening the fear inside
I don't think you're listening, I know I'm not whispering, don't feed me petty lies
With God as my witness you will hear me now
Your time, my patience, they have both run out
You will remember me

I've carried on, carried on without you
A part of me hopes that you're watching and waiting,
Waiting to remember me
