Verse 1

I always thought that you would be the only one did everything to make it seem like it was love you treated me like a queen you had your way you made your stay some other fairytale came to a end cant believe i fell for your type again

Cours:

aint no such thing as prince charming i can tell one from another cuz they all the same yea it might feel good but it dont feel right cuz i know im not the only one on your mind aint no such thing as prince charming i can tell one from another cuz they all the same yea it coulda been good it coulda been right i wished you would kept it real instead of waisting my time

Verse 2:

thought that you would be the one to come and rescue me to bad i was so damn blind i couldn't see a thing you played your game a million ways i trusted it and you lied to me some other fairy tale came to a end cant believe i fell for your type again
