I don't understand this, all pain pushed inside, all plastic frustration

Why you cannot be you, I am walking hate, all this surrounds me

I can't even try, I don't understand

Why I hate me

You do not see, I don't understand, in a mirror I see nothing

Why don't I see something, my mind my own prison, your face my own toy

I have no honest reflection, I don't understand

Why I hate me

See what I am, everything has changed, and I can't find my own mind

Cause everything feels dead

I can't feel

I am numb

A perfect person

Kill me

Found out what I'm doing, I can't find my head
