It feels like yesterday when we made this pact that we would never look back

We built our dreams higher than our morals and now your ghost shoots me straight like a shotgun

So give me a chance and I'll give you a nightmare

But I don't know what you're so afraid of.

This was our mission and were never gonna give it up

But you let it sink just like a battle ship

As every day goes by

We've waited for this time to shine

What happened to the dreams that we both had

Why am I still here with out you

As these days press on and these memories fade

Will I be the last one standing. Will I be the last one standing

Tell me why did these roads cross paths

And how could you run a stray from this

They try to tell me it's the human condition

I disagree cause it's the one thing I live for Cause this is the dream we'll keep fighting for

It's all we have

We won't let life pass by

We gave it all to live tonight

What happened to the dreams that we both had

Why am I still here with out you

As these days press on and these memories fade

Will I be the last one standing. Will I be the last one
standing

What happened to the dreams that we both had

Why am I still here with out you

As these days press on and these memories fade

Will I be the last one standing. Will I be the last one
standing
