Well, I'll be OK
No matter what they throw at me
No matter what they say
I'm gonna be OK

'Cause every dog has his day
To break the chain and run away

Well, I'll be OK
And you should come with me
Where we can be OK
It's gonna be OK

Look at the stars at night
Everyone's got a star
Everyone's got a light

And your star
Is bright
It's bright

Your Little Star

I'm the Green One
I rise with the setting sun
And ride on the side of the moon
On the side of the moon

'Cause every dawn has it's day
When the clouds part away
And the sun shows it's face
Everything in it's place

Look at the stars at night
Everyone's got a star
Everyone's got a light

And your star
Is bright
It's bright

Your Little Star

Circles
Turning in our heads
Keep us spinning 'round
They keep us on the ground

Get it out of your head
Get it off of the ground

Look at the stars at night
Everyone's got a star
Everyone's got a light

And your star
Is bright
It's bright

Hoo-ray
Hoo-rah
You got a star

And you know who you are
