A couple Pocahontas legs peakin' out a swimmin' hole
Solo blockin' shots under that soccer goal
Cheerleader pom-poms on a Saturday night
That's a country boy's kryptonite

A little caramel colored honey, whiskey in a glass
Couple bucks down and a couple beers back
Gonna get a little lit sippin' on Bud light
That's a country boy's kryptonite

I can't resist it, I'm addicted
Even Superman would lose this fight
Yeah, and all of this, is my weakness
It's all a country boy's kryptonite, oh yeah

Comer county mud hole kickin' up spray
A Sunday afternoon in a checkered flag plates
And a 12 point buck sittin' in a plus-sight
That's a country boy's kryptonite

I can't resist it, I'm addicted
Even Superman would lose this fight
Yeah, and all of this, is my weakness
It's a country boy's kryptonite, yes it is

BF Goodrich, brand new Justins
My baby in a ball cap, that's where it's at

I can't resist it, I'm addicted
Even Superman would lose this fight
Yeah, and all of this, is my weakness
It's a country boy's kryptonite

I can't resist it, I'm addicted
Even Superman would lose this fight
Yeah, and all of this, is my weakness
It's all a country boy's kryptonite,
It's all a country boy's kryptonite
