Verse 1 - Kids Eye View

JM: Everything is awesome, I smile so often get all fired up just seeing a fire truck, just skipping to the music backyard playing ball all the live long day cause its all great

Sleep: I couldn't wait to start my day off lace my stadium's up
hopped over the fence to my neighbors spot wake up wake up knock knock invade the layer with talks about playing mortal combat all day on Sega

JM: All my buddies we be down like rail spikes
t-p your house, put potatoes in tailpipes pulling pranks outasite sneaking out at night being out all night for me it just feels right

Sleep: Man I hope I'm not last to get picked for kick ball
cuz if I do I'm going back to the crib for Pit Fall and I'm not coming out till that glorious sound of the snow-cone lady coming around!

CHORUS

IT'LL GET YOU THERE, WHEN IT GETS WILD...
IF YOU SMILE FOR ME, WHEN I LOOK AT YOU
SO THAT I'LL KNOW , I'M NOT ALONE

Verse 2 - Runaway Teen

JM: Back in the days when i was a teenager...
LSD dealer puttin numbers in my pager Starter caps raiders jacket at the mall racking gear buying beer yelling yes yes yall

Sleep: I used to riggity rock pokadots and criggity cross colors
break out into a dance routine after I dropped a hot verse (no lie) and I laugh about it now
(i was so high) don't ever think I came back down

JM: I was learning bout loyalty chilling with my crew

we be drinking by the traintracks, talking about who you'd do
jennifer or jessica or hillary or emily if you anyone took my girl, 'they were the enemy'

Sleep

But these are the days were making memories
you can't take em away...
Rolling a bucket while we pass the j, it goes fast away,
and laughs get cast away if you forget to smile.

Chorus

IT'LL GET YOU THERE, WHEN IT GETS WILD...
IF YOU SMILE FOR ME, WHEN I LOOK AT YOU
SO THAT I'LL KNOW , I'M NOT ALONE

verse 3 - All Growed Up

JM: I be getting buzzed, rubbed every which way and every single day of the year in the mirror
i get weirder and weirder looking /aging crooked ways/smile/ look at those dog gone grays

Sleep: Fell fast hit the ground twice found out that I didn't know much about life
the sparkle in my eye reduced to a mood-light and friendships turned into sellouts in the moonlight

JM: And it makes you scared of me... you always got somewhere to be Your supposed to smile
when it don't seem fair to me

Sleep: Its hard to make sense of this madness recreation turns habit reconciliation needs to happen
so i can get some peace for now...and keep reachin out sometimes you gotta re-teach yourself how to smile...

Smile. Better last a while,
gotta be prepared when it gets wild,
If you smile for me, i'll sing a song for you...
so that you'll know...Your not alone.
