Wont you say a prayer, for everything we fight for
We will not back down, together we stand out
When you're on your own, just know you're not alone
As one we may fall but together we stand strong

We run the race
But we're not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind
We run the race
But were not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind

If you ever had a dream
One life you wish to lead
Don't give up this time
I wont give up one you
Even if you're falling, even if you're falling
If this is how you feel
I'll never give up on you
I wont stay down
I wont ever give up on you

We run the race
But we're not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind
We run the race
But were not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind

No we wont get left behind

Running from your past will do nothing for you
Hold onto love, you dont know what ive been through
My hands shake as I battle these scars
Hiding from my fear, now you know you've left a mark
I watched you walk away
How can you call this sane
So take this to your grave

For me

We run the race
But we're not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind
We run the race
But were not the only ones
And we've fallen, yeah we've fallen
But we wont get left behind

You see I've fallen now
You know I wont back down
Will you save me, will you save me
You know I wont back down
Will you save me, will you save yourself
You know I wont back down
Will you save me, will you save me
You know I wont back down
Will you save me, will you save yourself
