Baby dont cry, I'll be by your side
No need to fear, of the unknown
We made it, all the way to this
So get off your knees

Six feet and counting, no where but down
Six feet and counting, together under the ground

Close your eyes it's time to sleep
A lullaby too haunt your dreams
Can you see the light
At the end of the road
Don't waste your breath no time to speak
A second chance is all we need
All you see is darkness
In a world with no hope

Six feet and counting, no where but down

All affairs in order, it's time to go
Dead man walking, I thought you should know
There's no sign of stopping, the bridges have burned
We're left alone, the match is our own.

Six feet and counting, no where but down
Six feet and counting, together under the ground

Close your eyes it's time to sleep
A lullaby too haunt your dreams
Can you see the light
At the end of the road
Don't waste your breath no time to speak
A second chance is all we need
All you see is darkness
In a world with no hope

Say goodbye the time has come
We were promised forever, it will not be broke
Say goodbye the time has come
We were promised forever, it will not be broke
Say goodbye the time has come
We were promised forever, it will not be broke

No where but down
No where but down

Close your eyes it's time to sleep
A lullaby too haunt your dreams
Can you see the light
At the end of the road
Don't waste your breath no time to speak
A second chance is all we need
All you see is darkness
In a world with no hope

Say goodbye the time has come
We were promised forever, it will not be broke
Say goodbye the time has come
We were promised forever
