Thinking about you all day long
I'm counting the hours that tug it on (Oh)
I just wanna see you (Oh Damn)
Cos' you are the only thing that takes me away-ay
People always talk, talking in my face
When I wish they would walk, walk the hell away
I've been waiting all day just for tonight (Oh)
Just to touch you
I'm speeding all the way home
Because I already know
That you've been waiting for me
You've got something to show me
That's why you are my baby
I just open the door and I put my stuff down
And I'm making my way through the hallway now
I've made it straight to the room
I smell your Channel perfume
When I look at the bed
I know you're already in your black lace
Don't know who's real
And don't know who's fake
You don't know me you just know my face (Oh)
I just wanna fly high away
And pick you up on the way
And girl where we went
I'm gonna show you some things
From the start till' the end
It's gonna be ecstasy
The moon is so full
And the weather's just right(Oh oh oh oh oh oh)
I'm speeding all the way home
Because i already know
That youve been waiting for me
That youve got something to show
That's why you are my baby
I just open the door and I put my stuff down
And I'm making my way through the hall way now
I've made it straight to the room
I smell your Channel perfume
When I look at the bed
I know you're already in your black lace
Oh your black lace

Oh your black lace
It turns me on
I can't wait to get it on
I just open the door and I put my stuff down
And I'm making my way through the hall way now
I've made it straight to the room
I smell your Channel perfume
When I look at the bed
I know you're already in your black lace
