"Fade To Grey"

didn't mean to tell you, all the things that made you cry didn't mean to push you round when we said our last goodbye
didn't mean to leave you blue with the things i had to say but you painted all my blue skys, and made them fade to grey

im sorry darling if i made you sad i know your'e sorry now for everything we had but now i know....... i have to let it go.....

yes i know........
but i can't let it show
that i hate to see you go didn't mean to whisper, when you wanted me to shout didn't mean to wonder on the things that made me doubt

so if i made you blue with the things i had to say it's because you took my blue skys and turned them into grey and i'm sorry darling if it hurt's so bad are you still sorry now for everything we had cause i know........

that i cant let you go
yes i know.........
i have to let it show

but i know........
yes i know........
that i hate to see you go.
