This crazy life, that we been living
Where we slowly lose our minds
Cause in the time that we are given
There's always something undefined
Is it real or am I dreaming
Will we ever learn to walk
Cause we been crawling up the mountain
Tumbling down into the dark

Push me over, pick me up
Put my feet back on the ground,
And take the time, to get to know me
I will always be around,
When they push you over, I will pick you up
And put your feet back on the ground
I'll take the time, to get to know you
I will always be around, I'll be around

This crazy life, that you been living
Where you slowly lose your mind
Cause in the time that you are given
There's always something undefined
Is it real or am I dreaming
Will we ever learn to walk
Cause you been crawling up the mountain
Tumbling down into the dark

Push me over, pick me up
Put my feet back on the ground,
And take the time, to get to know me
I will always be around,
When they push you over, I will pick you up
And put your feet back on the ground
I'll take the time, to get to know you
I will always be around, I'll be around
