We're more than overwhelmed
By hundreds of hugs and a million good words
We are satisfied from Monday till Friday
And on Sunday we cry

But we like it from that point of view
So we stay here and bare until dawn everyday
And we stay here and bare everyday

We never ever lie from ten in the morning
We are honest till nine, we are over cute
We never will manage to be rude only twice

But we like it from that point of view
So we stay here and bare until dawn everyday
And we stay here and bare everyday
