Sinking in myself, I scream
Is it light? It is hope? Or a dream
Down, fuckin'™ down, deep down inside
The child in me has died.

Crooked are my steps
And wicked is my cry
Cry and you cry and you lie and you cry
Choked in your smell and
Burnt in your deed
I'm suffering to breathe.

Stranded and standstill
All that I say is all that I feel
My life is fading
But I'm pleading yet I'm bleeding.

I am lost in the haze of my dreams
And I have got nowhere else to go
And so, I lay beneath my dream
And all I can hear - hear my soul scream.

Crooked are my steps
And wicked is my cry
Cry and you cry and you lie and you cry
Choked in your smell and
Burnt in your deed
I'm suffering to breathe.

Stranded and standstill
All that I say is all that I feel
My life is fading
But I'm pleading yet I'm bleeding.

Crooked are my steps
Cry and you cry and you lie and you cry
cry..... lie
