Walking on the bed of thorns
Death waiting at the end of lanes
Darkened skies, malicious smile
Tears shaded for loved ones in vain
Ground thundered with heavy steps
Bloody red soon with fallen fates
False pride staked at mouth of barrel
Throwing open mortality's gates
Bleeding heart has kissed goodbyes
In every niche of life, destruction lies
Toyed with by crafted minds
Virtues shadowed in mastered vice
Fallen bodies blinded kills
Lives at stake dark it feels
Death is your love, destruction bride
Sermon in mind
Die for nations pride
